

HouseMate⁽⁽⁽ Lite

TALKING REMOTE CONTROL WITH SWITCH INPUTS

HouseMate is a stand-alone switch accessible Infra-red remote control with auditory feedback using recorded speech. Practical and easy to use HouseMate can be operated by external switches or directly by pressing the keypad.

- Records up to 20 Infra-red commands from other remote controls.
- Can record long sequences and macros.
- Programmable scanning options.
- Single or two level operation.
- Built in microphone and speaker deliver good quality speech output with 5 seconds record time per command.
- Jack sockets for single and two switch scanning.
- Bright LED display with slide-in pocket for keypad label.
- Easy to mount attractive robust enclosure.
- Runs on 3 x AA batteries.

